Simply Answers classes expire 6 months from date of purchase. Memberships are held in one customer's name and are non-transferrable. One guest may sit in on each class, but the membership-holder must be present. 24-hours notice must be given before cancellation. If 24-hours notice is not given, a make-up class will not be provided. Simply Answers members may only attend one class per calendar week, and may only have one class scheduled at a time. Simply Mac reserves the right to reschedule any class without notice. Simply Mac also reserves the right to cancel any membership for any reason, and a refund may not be issued.
